

AUDITORIUM THEATRE
of ROOSEVELT UNIVERSITY

Help Us Celebrate Our 120th Birthday!

The Auditorium is celebrating its 120th birthday next week, and we're offering YOU a gift!

Join us on Monday, December 7th for FREE mini-tours of the Auditorium at noon and 3pm. No need to make a reservation - just meet us in the outer lobby for your chance to hear more about the art, architecture and history of our National Historic Landmark Theatre.

Celebrate the Holidays with America's #1 Nutcracker!

Chicagoland's most popular family holiday event returns to the Auditorium December 11-27!

This heart-warming production of Robert Joffrey's *The Nutcracker features the full Joffrey company, local children's choruses and 120 young dancers from Chicago and the surrounding areas, with live accompaniment from the Chicago Sinfonietta.

This original production combines classical elegance with thrilling explosive action, set amidst lavish period costumes and spectacular scenery depicting Victorian America. Snowflakes and flowers dance with magic, fierce battles are waged, and toys come joyfully to life in the hands of familiar characters Clara, her mischievous brother Fritz, the King and Queen of the glorious Land of Snow, the Sugar Plum Fairy, the warring Mice led by the Mouse King, the Nutcracker Prince and the mysterious Dr. Drosselmeyer.

Choirs will delight audiences with popular seasonal selections in the Auditorium lobby one half-hour prior to curtain and during intermissions at every performance.
