LIZT ALFONSO DANCE CUBA BRINGS THE HEAT TO THE AUDITORIUM THEATRE

Company Celebrates Its 25th Anniversary and Cuban History with Cuba Vibra!

LIZT ALFONSO DANCE CUBA - CUBA VIBRA! ON NOVEMBER 5 AND 6

Experience the soul, energy, and passion of Cuba this November, when the Auditorium Theatre welcomes Lizt Alfonso Dance Cuba for two performances of its vibrant program Cuba Vibra! on November 5 and 6. The company explores Cuban music and dance from the 1950s to the present throughout Cuba Vibra!, effortlessly combining cha-cha, rumba, Flamenco, conga, bolero, mambo, and more – all the rhythms that resonate with the heart and soul. A seven-piece band with vocalist will perform accompaniment right on the Auditorium Theatre’s historic stage alongside 18 dancers.

"I am thrilled to welcome Lizt Alfonso Dance Cuba to the Auditorium Theatre," says Tania Castroverde Moskalenko, Auditorium Theatre’s incoming Chief Executive Officer, who begins on October 3 and was born in Cuba. "As the company celebrates its 25th anniversary of presenting the vibrant culture of Cuba through music and dance, I am delighted that the presentation coincides with my arrival to the Auditorium Theatre. I can’t think of a more fitting welcome."

Lizt Alfonso Dance Cuba, which celebrates its 25th anniversary this year, has performed internationally including Beijing and Istanbul, and appeared onstage at the Latin GRAMMYs in Las Vegas in 2015. The company has also worked with Enrique Iglesias, who featured the group in his 2014 video for the song "Bailando" (the title translates to "Dancing"). The company’s last appearance in Chicago was in 2010, when they also performed on the Auditorium Theatre's landmark stage.

"I am so excited to bring the company back to Chicago and back to the Auditorium Theatre," says Lizt Alfonso, the founder and director of Lizt Alfonso Dance Cuba. "We look forward to telling the story of Cuban music and dance with the program Cuba Vibra!"
