(Chicago, IL) – American music icons Frankie Valli & The Four Seasons take the Auditorium Theatre stage on Saturday, November 3 at 8PM. Tickets go on sale Friday, June 22 at noon and will be available online at AuditoriumTheatre.org, by phone at 312.341.2300, or in person at the Auditorium Theatre Box Office (50 E Congress Pkwy). Tickets start at $55.

Valli's incredible career with The Four Seasons, as well as his solo success, has spawned countless hit singles – from the timeless "December '63 – Oh, What A Night" to the infectious "Sherry" to the effortlessly cool title song for Grease – and made an impact on influential musicians like the Bee Gees, Brian Wilson, and Billy Joel. This performance marks Valli's return to the Auditorium Theatre's landmark stage after 41 years.

"I am so excited to welcome the legendary Frankie Valli & The Four Seasons back to our landmark theatre," says Tania Castroverde Moskalenko, Auditorium Theatre CEO. "It will be unforgettable to see this iconic group perform the songs that so many of us grew up with on our historic stage."

Valli has remained at the forefront of American music since he began performing in the 1950s. He and The Four Seasons became overnight sensations in the 1960s after performing "Sherry" on American Bandstand and sold more than 100 million records between 1962 and 1978. The group's chart-topping songs, including "Can't Take My Eyes Off of You," "Big Girls Don't Cry," and "Walk Like a Man," have been covered by artists such as Lauryn Hill, Barry Manilow, and Fiona Apple, among others. Valli's real-life story became the basis for the Tony Award-winning musical Jersey Boys.

The Auditorium Theatre Annual Fall Gala, honoring Mel Katten with the third Adler and Sullivan Award, precedes the performance with a Gala Reception and Dinner at the Palmer House Hilton.
